GRIZZLY THINCLADS DEFEAT MSU/
AT PELLEUR INV. FRIDAY, MAY 2

MISSOULA--

With key performances from a handful of freshmen, and the usual solid job by the veterans, the University of Montana men's track team defeated Montana State 90-64 Saturday for the Grizzlies 14th straight dual meet win over the Bobcats.

"It was an excellent blend of the older athletes with the younger ones," said second-year coach Marshall Clark. "Montana State is a much better team than the score showed. We didn't have a lot of great performances, but we had a lot of solid performances."

This Friday, May 2, UM will be at the Pueller Invitational in Cheney, Wash. The MSU meet was the final home event for the Grizzlies.

Two Grizzlies established records in the meet. Dave Gordon, a junior from Olympia, Wash., ran a 14:38.55 in the 500 meters, erasing the old mark of Dean Erhard (1974) by more than 11 seconds. The other record was a 3:54.13 by Larry Weber in the 1500 meters. He is a senior from Olympia, Wash.

There were several outstanding performances by Grizzly athletes, including double wins by seniors Dale Giem, Tim Fox and Weber.

Giem won the 200 meters (22.06) and 400 meters (49.21), while Fox won the 100-meter high hurdles (14.43) and intermediate hurdles (52.46). Weber won the 1500 and the 800 (1:52.26). The trio each ran in at least one of UM's wins in the 400 and 1600-meter relays.

An outstanding performance was turned in by freshman pole vaulter Scott McKay, who jumped 14-6 for a first-place effort. The other Grizzly first came from Luke Stephen, who won the 100 in 11.12. He was second in the 200(22.64).
